

WHAT

The Nonprofit Leaders Learning Group is a six-month program for senior managers and leadership team members of nonprofit organizations in San Diego County who are looking to further their leadership skills and develop relationships with other professionals across the sector. The six full-day sessions in this immersive program offer an effective blend of theory, real-world experience, and peer-learning.

WHY

The Executive Learning Group is an opportunity for you to learn state-of-the-art management models and leadership concepts for nonprofits, work with other nonprofit managers in solving problems you are facing, develop a network of resources for future use, and build trusted relationships with a supportive peer group.

WHEN

Two Learning Group Cohorts will be offered. All sessions will be held from 9:00am to 4:00pm for six months beginning in January of 2025 and continuing through June. The Tuesday Cohort will meet on the third or fourth Tuesday of the month with program dates of January 28, February 25, March 25, April 22, May 27, and June 24.

The Wednesday Cohort will meet on the third or fourth Wednesday of the month with program dates of January 29, February 26, March 26, April 23, May 28, and June 25 of 2024. Participants must commit to either Tuesdays or Wednesdays and will not be able to go between the two groups.

WHERE

All meetings will take place at the Fieldstone Leadership Network San Diego offices at 5060 Shoreham Place, Suite 350, San Diego, CA 92122. Coffee, drinks, snacks, and lunch will be provided. If the group is unable to meet in person at any point due to public health guidelines, virtual learning group sessions will take place using Zoom.

WHO

The Learning Group will be limited to ten nonprofit senior managers, selected to give a balance of size and leadership experience. As a peer-learning experience, this group requires the presence and participation of each member each month to be impactful for all. Please plan on blocking off all of the meeting dates now if you are applying for this program.

The group's facilitators are Tom Hall and Torrie Dunlap. Tom is a nationally recognized nonprofit arts executive, theater producer, and leadership consultant. Throughout his career, Tom has actively worked to support growth in the theater arts community at the local, state, and national level. Tom has participated in all aspects of Fieldstone Leadership Network San Diego since its inception and is committed to developing nonprofit mission-focused leadership as one of the best ways to create highly effective organizations.

Torrie Dunlap, a grateful Fieldstone Completist, started her career serving children and youth in 1989 when she taught tap dance at a Boys & Girls Club. While serving as the Education Director at San Diego Junior Theater, she discovered her passion for inclusion and joined Kids Included Together in 2003. Torrie served as the CEO of Kids Included Together (KIT) from 2012 to early 2024 and is now the Torrie is now the Chief Innovation Officer for AlphaBEST Education.

HOW

Each fast-moving session will include:

- An opportunity for members to present a current organization/leadership challenge, which the group will then clarify and work together on to develop solutions.
- Feedback from members who have already presented and a discussion on the usefulness of solutions worked out at the previous meeting.
- A presentation and discussion by the facilitator on a range of leadership and management topics based on reading material from the program handbook.

- A group evaluation of the effectiveness of the day and how the group can improve its own usefulness to one another.
- A resource-sharing time.

COST

A tuition payment of $1,000 per person is required to help defray a portion of the program costs. Thanks to the support of its funding partners, Fieldstone Leadership Network San Diego is able to cover the majority of the costs associated with this program, which is valued at over $4,500.

Learning Group Entrance Survey

To assist us in putting the Learning Group together, please complete the following questions. The information you provide in this survey will be kept confidential.

1. How did you hear about this program? _____

2. What led you to apply to a Learning Group this year?

3. How would you like to develop as a leader through your learning group experience? (check all that apply)

Gain clarity and/or confidence about my purpose/mission as a nonprofit leader

Learn to apply my leadership skills more effectively

Discover what my strengths and weaknesses as a leader are and how to address them

Strengthen my problem-solving ability

Improve my time-management

Find personal/professional balance

Reduce stress

Better understand nonprofit management best practices

Other:

4. In what ways are you hoping that the Learning Group experience will increase the capacity/effectiveness of your organization? (check all that apply)

Develop strategies to manage staff more effectively

Cultivate effective relationships within the leadership team of my organization

Increase my or my organization's collaboration with other leaders and/or organizations

Strengthen the impact of my individual leadership on my organization

Address a significant organizational problem or challenge

Other:

Participating in a peer learning group reaps many rewards: you develop strong professional connections with colleagues who are in similar roles; share and receive practical knowledge, ideas, and tools to help in your work; grow professionally as you learn new ideas, take risks, and mentor others; and give and receive support dealing with the challenges you face. Through active involvement in the peer learning process, you and your organization will be more effective in your work.

The most important factor in the success of a peer learning group is how well you prepare for, participate in, and interact with others.

5. How do you think you would benefit from participating in a peer learning experience?

6. What do you believe you would be able to contribute to the peer learning experience?

Peer learning cannot take place without the presence and participation of its members.

7. Understanding the importance of your participation, what would cause you to miss a Learning Group session?

8. Is there anything else that you would like us to know about you, your organization, or your participation in the program?

Commitment

To participate in the Nonprofit Leaders Learning Group, you and your CEO/Executive Director must agree with the following:

1. The Nonprofit Leaders Learning Group is one of peer learning that requires the presence and Participation from each member of the group at each meeting of the program. In support of the peer learning model, the Applicant is prepared to invest the time in building relationships with other members. The Applicant recognizes the importance of their presence at each monthly meeting and commits to honor the attendance requirements of the program. The CEO/Executive Director strongly endorses the Applicant’s participation and agrees to support their commitment to the attendance policy.

The sessions are one full day, from 9:00am to 4:00pm on either the fourth Tuesday or Wednesday of the month January through June 2025 at the Fieldstone Leadership Network San Diego office in the University City neighborhood. If you are unable to attend any of the sessions, you may not be able to graduate from the Learning Group and your tuition will be forfeited.
