Measurement Tools:

REMOTE WORK PULSE – a tool to measure how your team is working remotely

SAP Qualtrics will begin offering select Qualtrics Experience Management (XM) solutions for FREE to any organization to help them manage their employee experiences during the COVID-19 pandemic. It is called the Remote Work Pulse. This is a tool anyone in the world can access. It is a real-time, live barometer to help organizations understand how their employees are doing and how to support them as huge numbers of employees are now working from home https://www.qualtrics.com/here-to-help/

With workers being encouraged to work from home, there is a tremendous opportunity to better understand and engage your employees during these difficult times. A great blog on tips for virtual employee engagement: https://www.qualtrics.com/blog/working-remote/
